

It's the Little Things

On a chilly morning

Listening to the latest Covid news

I find comfort in drinking a hot cup of ginger tea

Its warmth soothes my soul

I enjoy listening to jazzy Christmas carols

It is the little things that help now

Photos of Christmas trees

Adorn my Facebook pages

6 foot spaced holiday choirs bring music to my ears

Looking at Christmas decorations on my walks makes me happy

It is the little things that help now.

Trees dressed in red and orange

Pink and white azaleas blooming

There is life out there

It is the little things that help now.
